I Will Love You

Bret Boyer April 2002

I may never walk across this country
I will never sail the seven seas
I will never slip one past Jordan
I will never play for kings and queens

I will love you
I will love you
I will love you
Until there is nothing left of me

I will never run my first marathon
I may never even get into shape
I may never try all 32 flavors
I may never even bow my head and say grace

I will love you
I will love you
I will love you
Until there is nothing left of me

I will love you
I will love you
I will love you
